DETAILS:

This investigation was initiated to ascertain the activities and extent of FRANK LA GALBO's involvement with the Milwaukee criminal element.

BACKGROUNDAT MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN

The current street directory for Milwaukee reflects FRANK P. LA GALBO, wife ANGELINE, operator of Chico's Barbecue, with home address 1414 East Albion, Milwaukee.

On December 5, 1963, [REDACTED]
Division of Vital Statistics, Milwaukee Health Department, advised she could not locate a marriage certificate for FRANK LA GALBO.

MI 92-371

Records of the Bureau of Vital Statistics for Milwaukee County fail to reflect a marriage certificate for FRANK LA GALBO.

On December 5, 1963, [ ] City Clerks Office, City Hall, Milwaukee, advised that FRANK LA GALBO, home address 1414 East Albion Street, doing business at 1544 to 1550 North Farwell, had on file with that department, an application for installation of music for the year 1963 to 1964.

b6
b7c

On December 5, 1963, [ ] Health Department, City of Milwaukee, stated that license number 4303 was issued for a tavern at 1544 to 1550 North Farwell under the name of FRANK and RUSSELL LA GALBO. She stated that their records indicate for the years 1950 to 1960 that FRANK LA GALBO also operated the Italian Sausage Company at 1544 North Farwell.

On December 5, 1963, [ ] City Clerks Office, Milwaukee, stated that FRANK LA GALBO has a Class B Beverage License, Number 332, for business to be conducted at 1544 to 1550 North Farwell. This license was granted originally on June 26, 1956. There was a notation in the file that from the years 1957 to the present when the license came up for renewal that the Milwaukee Police Department filed a formal objection to its issuance. There was a notation in the file stating that in February, 1957 the chef at the restaurant was charged with employing a minor without a work permit. The file indicated the police department objected for the following reasons:

b7c

MI 92-371

"Record of applicant's arrest, arrests made on the premises and the fact that FRANK LA GALBO has been out of the city for long periods of time and apparently has no control over the premises."

The file further reflected that a Class B license held in the year 1954 at the same location was revoked because FRANK LA GALBO failed to appear at the Safety Building for interrogation on the JOHNNY DI TRAPANI murder.

LA GALBO's application for license has been issued, however, for the years that the police department objected.

AUTOMOBILE

LA GALBO drives a 1962 Chevrolet, four door cream colored sedan, Wisconsin plate number L89-367 (this car is registered to Chico's, 1550 North Farwell). This vehicle has been observed by reporting agent to be usually parked at LA GALBO's residence, 1414 East Albion.

NATURALIZATION

Records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) Federal Building, Milwaukee, reflect that FRANK LA GALBO was born April 3, 1908, Bagheria, Sicily, father's name JOSEPH, mother's name FRANCES CRUPI (died in the United States unknown place, came to United States in 1913). His father remarried GAETANA MAZZARA before 1930 and the file reflects that FRANK's brothers are RUSSELL and SERAFINO, though it was noted that both of these brothers may be half-brothers because of the second marriage. FRANK LA GALBO's wife's name was given as ANGELINE (nee BROCCA) supposedly born in Milwaukee.

MI 92-371

FRANK LA GALBO entered the United States on October 3, 1913 at Boston, Massachusetts on the S.S. Napoli, and the file reflects that he was ordered deported under Warrant of Deportation dated January 24, 1939 on grounds that he was employed in or connected with a house of prostitution. He was discharged on a rite of Habeas Corpus in United States District Court, Eastern District of Wisconsin, February 20, 1939. Under Certificate of Naturalization Number 4820984, Petition Number 9848, FRANK LA GALBO was naturalized May 14, 1940 in United States District Court, Eastern District of Wisconsin over INS recommendation for denial. His address at that time was given as 1646 North Franklin.

CREDIT

Records of the Milwaukee Credit Bureau on December 3, 1963 reflected that FRANK LA GALBO, 1414 East Albion, employed at Chico's Barbecue since July 1, 1943, a restaurant and tavern, was described as 50 years old, married, no children, wife ANGELINE not employed. It was indicated he earns approximately $7,000 a year and owns the premises at 1418 North Farwell, and had a prior residence address of 2572 North Murray. There were several adverse reports from local retail establishments as being a slow payer.

Bureau of Identification, Milwaukee Police Department, advised on December 5, 1963 that FRANK LA GALBO, their number 17729, FBI Number 1264232, had the following record with that department:

[redacted] continued that there was a notation in her file that FRANK LA GALBO was arrested June 8, 1937 as a suspect in the murder of JACK DENTICE who was found shot in his auto at 2:00 A.M., June 8, 1937. b6 b7C

HOODLUM ACTIVITIES

MI T-3 advised on October 10, 1963 that he has no information that FRANK LA GALBO is currently active in hoodlum activities or is active in an advisory capacity.

MI T-1 advised on October 22, 1963 that as far as he knows FRANK LA GALBO spends practically all his time at Chico's Restaurant. He said that he is more or less an outcast with the rest of the Milwaukee Outfit, chiefly because of his attempt several years ago to take over the town and assume the leadership of the Outfit in Milwaukee. He was unsuccessful in displacing JOHN ALIOTO and himself is in disfavor. He said he knows very little concerning this individual. He said he does not associated with the other members.

MI T-1 advised on September 16, 1963 that LA GALBO was around 48, 5'11", graying hair, medium build, operates Chico's Restaurant, 1550 North Farwell, is married, has children. He stated that LA GALBO should have an arrest record at the Milwaukee PD, and he knows that he was picked up for questioning on JACK ENEA's murder.

In regard to LA GALBO's connections with FRANK BALISTRIERI, MI T-1 stated that LA GALBO is a member of the Italian Outfit in Milwaukee, and that FRANK BALISTRIERI owns a piece of FRANK LA GALBO's cigarette vending company, name of which is unknown to informant but may possibly be I&G Vending Machine Company. MI T-1 said that LA GALBO would actually be considered a lieutenant in the syndicate in Milwaukee, but that he is in the MANIACI-LA GALBO-DI MAGGIO faction, and, hence, opposed to FRANK BALISTRERI.

MI T-1 stated that LA GALBO tried to take over the outfit on several occasions, the last one being as late as 1961 when he failed to take over from FRANK BALISTRERI and left Milwaukee for three or four weeks, staying at his summer place in Oconto, Wisconsin. He said that LA GALBO is a good suspect in the ENEA murder. Informant stated that LA GALBO is well respected in the outfit but is definitely not trusted by FRANK BALISTRERI.

The following investigation was conducted by SA GEORGE K. AYERS in 1962:

Information was received from [redacted] Marinette County, Wisconsin on April 17, 1962 that FRANK LA GALBO had a summer cottage located on the Right of Way Road near Peshtigo, Wisconsin. He stated that he had bought the home from one of the Thompson Boat Company people about seven or eight years ago. He stated that LA GALBO had stayed in that cottage for a few months most all of the time after he bought the home and that he had had flood lights installed on the exterior of the house and in the yard and kept them on all night long, and also had a couple of large dogs there constantly. He stated that he recalled that LA GALBO also had a man there with him all of the time who appeared to be a sort of body guard, and who lived in a small guest cottage near the garage to the home. He stated that LA GALBO stayed to himself and did not associate with any of the local people, and that he had often checked

b6
b7c

MI 92-371

the premises at various hours and had never seen any activity or other cars other than the LA GALBO auto. He stated that when LA GALBO first resided in the cottage, seven or eight years ago, he appeared to be afraid and took the above mentioned security measures in fear for his life. He stated that LA GALBO's brother, RUSSELL LA GALBO was married to [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] and that he believed that they worked in Chico's on North Farwell in Milwaukee, a restaurant which was owned by FRANK LA GALBO. He stated that the [REDACTED] were of good reputation, and that [REDACTED] was also married to an [REDACTED] girl. He stated that LA GALBO did not come to the cottage very much over the past few years and that it was up for sale, and that [REDACTED] a neighbor of LA GALBO's on Right of Way Road had the key to the house. [REDACTED] stated that he had attempted to get into the house to look it over as if he were interested in buying it but that [REDACTED] would not allow him to enter. He stated that there had been much local interest and concern regarding LA GALBO in view of his security measures of seven or eight years ago, and that he had kept a close watch over the activities of the place, but had not seen anything to indicate that it was nothing but a sort of hide out for LA GALBO at the time.

b7C

It is noted that the LA GALBO home is located on Route #2, Peshtigo, Wisconsin on the Right of Way Road about one-half mile northeast of the City of Peshtigo. A For Sale sign was noted in front of the house on April 17, 1962 with the following information in front of the house; "Call or write Mr. Frank, Milwaukee Zone 2, Wis., Tele. BR 3-6465, 1550 No. Farwell St." It was also noted that a For Sale sign bore the name of ROY RABE, Peshtigo.

MI 92-371

[redacted] Marinette County, b6
[redacted] advised on April 17, 1962 that his records b7C reflected that the Northwest 1/4 of the Southwest 1/4 of Section 17, T 30 N, R 23 E, and part of government lot 2, Section 18, was listed as sold on October 1, 1954
by ADOLPH G. THOMPSON and JOSEPHINE THOMPSON to FRANK LA GALBO and PAUL LA GALBO, and on March 19, 1959, the property was transferred from FRANK and PAUL LA GALBO to FRANK LA GALBO, through Attorney DOMINIC FRINZI.
It is noted that Attorney LAWRENCE D. GILLICK was also listed on the transaction.

[redacted] Peshtigo, b6
Wisconsin advised on April 24, 1962 that the LA GALBO b7C cottage was located about two houses north of his place.
He stated that he had seen LA GALBO around the place many times over the past seven or eight years, but that he kept to himself and that the local people had little to do with him. He stated that LA GALBO did not frequent his place very much any more and that he believed that he came to the cottage only for a week or two each summer.
He stated that when he first bought the place he had resided there for a few months but he never saw any autos or persons to indicate that he had any visitors.
He stated that at that time he had kept some large dogs on the premises and had flood lights installed on the exterior of the home and that he kept the lights on all night long, which was a source of irritation to the neighbors.

Mr. ROY RABE, President, Peshtigo Bank, Peshtigo, Wisconsin advised on April 24, 1962 that he had sold the THOMPSON cottage on the Right of Way Road about seven or eight years ago to FRANK LA GALBO of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He stated that he was a real estate dealer as well as banker and that he did not know LA GALBO before the transaction and knew very little about him. He stated that he understood that the place was for sale at the present time, but that he did not have a listing on it although he heard that his name was on a sign as real estate dealer. Mr. RABE stated that he had heard that a school teacher from Crivitz, Wisconsin was interested in the purchase of the place and that he would attempt to determine if the place was sold. He advised on June 1, 1962 that the place was still in the name of FRANK LA GALBO and that it was not sold although it was definitely for sale. He stated that he knew nothing about the activities of LA GALBO, but recalled that he kept to himself when he lived there in the past.

MI 92-371

MI T-1 advised on January 23, 1962 that AUGIE MANIACI and JOHN AIELLO are enforcers or strong arm boys for the Italian-American clique in Milwaukee, which follows FRANK LA GALBO.

MI T-1 advised on November 22, 1961 that LA GALBO, this past summer, tried to take over leadership but had to leave Milwaukee for two weeks to let things cool off. LA GALBO was afraid of FRANK BALISTRIERI's strong arm men, STEVE DE SALVO and BUSTER BALESTRERE and now LA GALBO and BALISTRIERI have made up to a certain extent.

MI T-1 advised on October 7, 1961 that there was a rumor that AUGIE MANIACI and FRANK LA GALBO would like to take over leadership and are undermining FRANK BALISTRIERI by spreading rumors in the organization and criticizing BALISTRIERI for the unfavorable publicity he is receiving at the present time. LA GALBO has the backing of MIKE ALBANO and LA GALBO's son-in-law, JOE ENEA, is still working for FRANK BALISTRERI as a bartender at Gallagher's.

MI T-1 advised on September 24, 1961 that there were three cliques in Milwaukee and that they were each on the outs with one another, possibly because there was much dissatisfaction with the leadership of FRANK BALISTRERI.

MI T-2 advised on September 18, 1961 that the younger men in the Milwaukee group wanted JOHN ALIOTO to step down, which would clear the way to get rid of FRANK BALISTRERI and that they favor FRANK LA GALBO as a leader.

MI T-2 advised on May 11, 1961 that LA GALBO was a powerful member of the syndicate and answers to the Chicago group and is very close to FELIX "MILWAUKEE PHIL" ALDERISIO and TONY ACCARDO.

MI T-2 advised on August 4, 1959 that PHIL VALLEY was very strong in the Milwaukee group and was taking orders from Chicago. He stated also that FRANK LA GALBO was also powerful but takes orders through VALLEY and the Chicago group.

MI T-1 advised on June 15, 1962 that JOE ENEA was [redacted] of LA GALBO and that LA GALBO answers directly to the Chicago syndicate. LA GALBO's contact man in Chicago was said to be "MILWAUKEE PHIL" ALDERISIO.

MI T-1 advised on June 12, 1959 that he believed that the leader of the Milwaukee group now was JOHN ALIOTO or FRANK BALISTRERI and/or FRANK LA GALBO. Informant advised that DUFFY TARANTINO on his deathbed [redacted]

MI T-4 advised on January 15, 1958 that LA GALBO was a former lieutenant in the Milwaukee group but was now under TONY ACCARDO of the Chicago group. LA GALBO got into trouble with the Milwaukee group over the DI TRAPANI murder and was only allowed in Milwaukee during the day time and one day at a time. It was felt that LA GALBO might try to kill JOHN ALIOTO.

MI T-5 advised on June 4, 1954 that LA GALBO was now an inactive member of the Mafia group and it was learned that LA GALBO had a serious argument with JOHN DI TRAPANI just prior to DI TRAPANI's death. MI T-5 advised he believes that LA GALBO killed DI TRAPANI or had it done. It was understood that LA GALBO was thoroughly questioned by the Milwaukee PD but with negative results concerning the DI TRAPANI killing.

On October 12, 1965, [redacted] advised SA RICHARD C. THOMPSON as follows: b7D

On the basis of the anonymous letters received by this office some years ago concerning LCN activities, the writer checked with the Detective Clerical Bureau of the Milwaukee PD and obtained a list of murders from 1925 to 1945 which might be attributable to the LCN. It should be noted that the Milwaukee PD keeps a list of blue cards, numbered consecutively filed under "Murder" in the indices of the Detective Clerical Bureau, but these do not go back to the beginning of the department's history. In fact, there seems to be little prior to 1925.

On 12/12/65, the above informant was interviewed concerning the murders and he pointed out four (discussed below) which he said were definitely LCN murders:

ALBERT SPECIALI, shot at Jackson and Lyon Streets on 2/18/26: Informant said [redacted] b7D

[redacted] Informant said he had no personal knowledge about the case.

FRANK AIELLO, shot at 11:30 PM while playing cards with two brothers-in-law at 2476 South 18th Street, 5/23/31: There were two shots fired through a window. Informant stated that [redacted] b6

Informant had no personal knowledge of this murder.

JACK WILLIAM DENTICE, shot through the head while in his car on Menomonie and Jefferson Streets at 1:55 AM, 6/8/37. Informant said [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Informant had no personal knowledge of the murder, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

In addition, informant said that he recalled another LCN murder which took place, possibly about 1920. He said he did not know the name of the victim but recalled he (victim) had just been released from prison and was believed to have informed to the police about someone connected with the LCN. Informant said this murder took place near the Detroit Street School, and victim was shot through a window while he was sitting at a table eating in the company of JOSEPH SCIORTINO. Informant said SCIORTINO was taken in by the police but released within a short time. Informant said that SCIORTINO and the victim (to the best of his recollection) were probably living or rooming in the house in which the murder occurred. Informant said the shooting was done through a window [REDACTED]

b7D

[REDACTED] Informant said he had no personal knowledge that [REDACTED] committed the murder but he had heard this in later years. It should be noted that a check of the murder records referred to above, failed to disclose any murders as far back as 1920 nor were there any murders listed from 1925 on, which might fit the description of the offense above. A check was made to determine whether anything could be learned from the record of JOSEPH SCIORTINO. It was noted he was arrested in 1932 but there was nothing to indicate he was arrested about 1920. Informant said that JOSEPH SCIORTINO is now dead. The Milwaukee PD record re JOSEPH SCIORTINO, arrested in 1932, listed his year of birth as 1898. Informant said this was probably the JOSEPH SCIORTINO who was present at the time of the murder but was in no way involved.

FRANK LA GALBO, according to the source, has not been active in any Milwaukee affairs of the Milwaukee "Outfit" or family since the murder of JOHN DI TRIPANI of Milwaukee a number of years ago.

On 5/16/66, the same source advised [REDACTED]

b7D

This is the LCN family of which FRANK LA PORTE of the Chicago Heights, Illinois, area is the boss. Since LA GALBO belongs to the Chicago Southside family, he cannot participate in Milwaukee family affairs unless it is okayed by LA PORTE.

LA GALBO [REDACTED]

b7D

[REDACTED] LA GALBO claims that DI TRIPANI was murdered because he tipped off the fact that the Chicago "Outfit" was behind the gambling deal in Denver in which an oil man (possibly ROBERT ROMAN) was taken for a big loss. Source also advised that LA GALBO stated FRANK BALISTRIERI is drunk with power and that in Milwaukee it is just a matter of trying to get along with BALISTRIERI to avoid any trouble.

An information copy of this report is furnished to Chicago as [REDACTED] has advised subject is a member of the Chicago Southside family.

Synopsis: Car of FRANK LA GALBO observed at 1969 wake for DOMINIC ALDERISIO, father of FELIX "Milwaukee Phil" ALDERISIO. FRANK LA GALBO attended the wake for JOSEPH BALISTRIERI, father of FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI, in Milwaukee on 3/5/71. Informant advised FRANK LA GALBO not known to be engaged in any illegal activities at the present.

-C-

Details: On July 14, 1969, the Chicago Division advised DOMINIC ALDERISIO, father of FELIX "Milwaukee Phil" ALDERISIO, Chicago LCN family member, died in Chicago during early July, 1969. The wake and funeral of DOMINIC ALDERISIO was covered by the Intelligence Unit of the Chicago Police Department.

Among the automobiles identified as in attendance at the wake of DOMINIC ALDERISIO was that registered to FRANK LA GALBO, 1552 North Farwell Avenue, Milwaukee.

On July 24, 1970, MI T-1 advised RUSSELL LA GALBO, stepbrother of FRANK LA GALBO, died in Milwaukee of natural causes during the week of July 17, 1970. MI T-1 described FRANK LA GALBO as a member of the Chicago LCN family living in Milwaukee and indicated LA GALBO reports directly to FRANK LA PORTE of the Chicago LCN family. MI T-1 advised ANTONINO MACHI, also known as Tony Petrolle, known Milwaukee bookmaker, was observed at RUSSELL LA GALBO's wake.

MI 92-371

On November 19, 1970, the Chicago Division advised long-distance toll calls from telephones utilized by FRANK LA PORTE in Chicago were made during November, 1970, to telephone number 273-6465, which is listed to Chico's Bar-B-Q and Cocktail Lounge and billed to FRANK LA GALBO, 1550 North Farwell Avenue, Milwaukee.

On February 19, 1971, MI T-1 noted FRANK LA GALBO stays to himself and does not seek association with members of the Milwaukee LCN family. LA GALBO never talks about the "outfit" and is afraid to discuss the matter as he is not considered to be on the books of the Milwaukee family. LA GALBO reports directly to FRANK LA PORTE of the Chicago LCN family and would most likely trust members of the Madison LCN family as they are formerly from the Chicago outfit.

On March 8, 1971, MI T-1 advised FRANK LA GALBO was one of many who attended the wake for JOSEPH BALISTRIERI in Milwaukee on March 5, 1971. JOSEPH BALISTRIERI was the father of FRANK BALISTRIERI, boss of the Milwaukee LCN family, and he died of natural causes on March 3, 1971.

On May 12, 1971, MI T-1 advised FRANK LA GALBO continues to operate Chico's Cocktail Lounge, 1550 North Farwell Avenue, Milwaukee, and is not known to be engaged in any criminal activities or to have any close association with Milwaukee LCN members.

MI T-2 advised on December 18, 1972 and again on March 2, 1973, that to his knowledge, subject is currently criminally inactive.

Repeated attempts during January, February, and March, 1973 to locate and interview subject were unsuccessful at both his home, 1414 E. Albion, and Chico's Lounge. However, a 1971 Chevrolet bearing 1973 Wisconsin F9642 was observed parked in front of the residence and was later determined to be registered to FRANK and ANGELINE LA GALBO.

On January 26, 1973, Bureau Agents talked to ANGELINE LA GALBO at Chico's but she was uncooperative, stating that her husband was seldom there and if he was it was usually around 8 or 9 p.m.

On February 28, 1973 at approximately 8:30 p.m., Bureau Agents again visited Chico's in an attempt to talk to the subject concerning the gangland style murder of LOUIS FAZIO. DETAILS:

MI T-1 reported on March 28, 1973, that subject's brother, SALVATORE LA GALBO, attended the funeral of FRANK LA PORTE, LCN member from Rockford, Illinois. SALVATORE was accompanied to the funeral by JIMMIE SCHIAVO.

Repeated attempts to contact and interview subject concerning his knowledge of the gangland style slaying of LOUIS FAZIO during March, April and May, 1973, were unsuccessful inasmuch as subject refused to talk to the FBI.

MI 92-371

On June 4, 1973, MI T-2 advised subject was trying to sell Chico's Lounge, located at 1550 North Farwell Avenue, Milwaukee. Source further reported that SALLY PAPIA, who owns Sally's Steakhouse, was interested in purchasing it. However, it was reported that when FRANK BALISTRERI, current head of Milwaukee LCN, heard that SALLY was interested, he told LA GALBO to double the price. This information supports previous source information that BALISTRERI and PAPIA do not get along; however, it was not known why he did not want her to buy Chico's Lounge.

Source stated that

a black male had been interested in buying El Chico's in order to start an exclusive black club and restaurant for the wealthy blacks, as well as black professional athletes in Milwaukee; however, LA GALBO would not sell to a black. Source advised he does not know whether SALLY PAPIA will eventually come up with the money, but that the situation as to the purchase of the restaurant is cooling quite a bit.

On October 17, 1973, MI T-3 advised he has recently learned that apparently SALLY PAPIA can not come up with the necessary money to purchase El Chico Restaurant owned by FRANK LA GALBO. Source speculated that it was not feasible for PAPIA to open up a restaurant at El Chico's because it would be in direct competition with her own restaurant, and, if it did not draw that clientele, it was in such a neighborhood as to not have a clientele which would be able to pay for a SALLY PAPIA type of bill.

On November 1, 1973, a check of Wisconsin Transaction of Information for Management Enforcement (TIME) provided the following information regarding LA GALBO:

Name	FRANK P. LA GALBO
Race	White
Sex	Male

TIME provided the following current vehicle information on a white Chevrolet, four door, observed parked in LA GALBO's driveway, bearing 1974 Wisconsin license F9642:

Registered to	FRANK & ANGELINE LA GALBO
Address	1550 North Farwell Avenue Milwaukee, Wisconsin

On November 13, 1973, the Chicago Office requested the subscriber to telephone number (414) 273-6465. This telephone number is listed to FRANK LA GALBO, 1414 East Albion, Milwaukee. LA GALBO's telephone number was called from Chicago Heights, Illinois, telephone number 756-6626, which is listed to ALFRED J. PILOTTO, 390 West 11th Place.

On September 24, 1973, MI T-4 advised that in March of 1973, a toll call was made from subject's telephone number (414) 273-3320 to [redacted] in Racine, Wisconsin.

On the same date, [redacted] Racine County Sheriff's Office, advised the files of that department contain no record for [redacted]

Numerous checks were made during December of 1973, and January of 1974, at Chico's Lounge and Restaurant, 1550 North Farwell, and at LA GALBO's residence, 1414 East Albion. No vehicles, other than LA GALBO's white Chevrolet, were ever found at either location. LA GALBO's automobile was always found parked in the driveway of his residence. No other activity was observed at this residence.

On January 30, 1974, [REDACTED] Special Assignment Squad, Milwaukee Police Department, advised he has no received any new information regarding LA GALBO, other than that El Chico Restaurant has not been sold to SALLY PAPIA. He has heard that the reason the sale was not completed was due to the price LA GALBO was asking.

On August 28, 1974, [redacted] was interviewed at his employment, [redacted] at which time he furnished the following information:

b6
b7C

He has known FRANK LA GALBO for many years and knew that in the recent past, LA GALBO was attempting to sell his restaurant, Chico's. Each time LA GALBO had a prospective buyer, however, the deal fell through. FRANK LA GALBO has been in poor health and his brother, PAUL LA GALBO, had expressed an interest in purchasing the restaurant. As the LA GALBO brothers do not get along too well [redacted] decided to intercede and be a middle man in the sale of the restaurant from FRANK LA GALBO to his brother, PAUL.

[redacted] paid FRANK LA GALBO [redacted] for the restaurant, being comprised of [redacted]. After purchasing the restaurant, [redacted] advised PAUL LA GALBO that PAUL could now purchase the restaurant; however, PAUL at that point did not feel he could handle the business.

[redacted] subsequently contacted by an attorney, FRANK CLARKO, was advised by CLARKO that [redacted] was interested in purchasing the restaurant. [redacted] subsequently sold the restaurant to [redacted] who paid [redacted]

To [redacted] knowledge, there was no undisclosed ownership in the restaurant and [redacted] was the only current owner. [redacted] concluded stating he has heard rumors to the effect that [redacted] is an associate of FRANK BUCCIERI.

It is noted previous investigation has identified [redacted] as an associate of FRANK BUCCIERI.
